Bristol, Oct. 12th 1846

My dear Sir.

May I beg the favor, if you have the opportunity of doing it without subjecting the Postmaster to inconvenience, to forward to Mr. Peck formerly of Berlin, Ohio, & to Wm Donaldson Esq., Cincinnati one of the copies of my "Brief Notes" which I have addressed to you in the box for Boston?

I have sent with the Box to each of those gentlemen on the Guard.

Western Advent is containing Gen. Thompson's speech in Bristol on Wednesday last

Mr. Thompson was my guest while in Bristol, and it gave us great pleasure to receive in our family circle.

Our exhibition of the articles for Boston has increased much attention, & has been visited by some hundred persons notwithstanding most unfavorable weather - I will send Mrs. Chapman a Bristol Mercury in which the Editor, who visited the collection noticed it: J. Chambers speech is worth a in the Grant Wadsworth Advertiser; the extract in the Morning Post the Speaker, is rather fuller. —

Sincerely Yours

J. B. Adams

My daughter begs admission acquaintance of some more Mrs J Chambers. If you have them already, they can go to the Magazine

Oct. 1846.
